MIL'S MUSINGS

By Richard Milbrot

CITIZENS OF LEMON GROVE can well be proud of their energetic participation in civic affairs in the past few months. We refer of course to the many citizens organizations that have developed recently and are taking active interest in the welfare of the community. Reason to be proud is that the progress achieved here will be recorded for posterity so that other communities may profit by our achievements. It will, however, be recorded in anonymity.

Perhaps you wonder who would be interested enough in Grove doings to make history from them. Well, it is no one else but the People Act Center, of New York. The Center is a non-profit organization aimed at adult education and the stimulation of civic-mindedness in everyone. You possibly heard one of their 13 weekly coast-to-coast documentary broadcasts of how various community problems were solved. Although this portion of their work was completed, response to the effort prompted the directors of People Act Center to begin another long range educational effort. This one it is to be "an information package" of recordings, charts, pamphlets and movies on the topic of civic cooperation which is to be made available to schools, etc. To aid in the formation of these materials, comprehensive questionnaires were sent to all known communities where citizen participation was noticeable. Lemon Grove's reply was sent back last Sunday, with only one reservation. The People Act Center emphasized that while real facts would be used, names and places wouldn't.

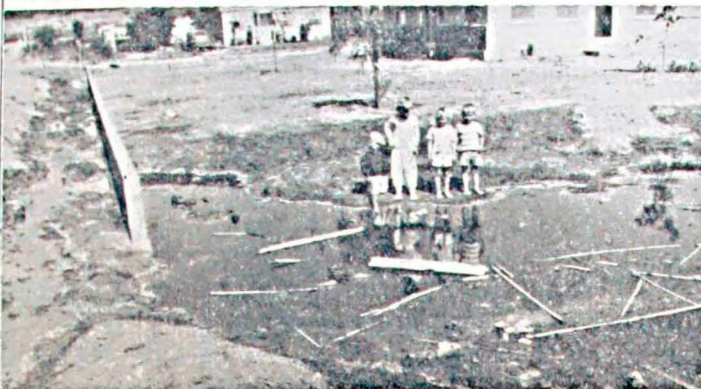

THE CHOICEST MORSELS ARE ALWAYS PICKED FIRST is an old saw that HELIX students had brought home last week. After the student body had elected our DAN APRA their favorite to lead the baccalaureate services, they were disappointed to find that another school had also deemed APRA number one on their popularity list and secured a commitment from APRA before Helix. No hard feelings though. Helix said that they will just have to ask sooner next year.

NOTE TO ALL YOU ANXIOUS READERS: that picture used in CRESSY'S ad last week was not Kiddies living along Citronella use the slime and neighbors. Covered Pearce Acres pool to play in. The gently rippling pool of green crusted water beckons invitingly to youngsters along Citronella Street. It is cool to young warm feet and a friendly "kerplunk" responds to clods tossed by the boys—but it is contaminated and dangerous! In spite of neighbors warnings it is the center of attraction for the young fry.

A pretty pastoral scene it makes except for one thing. The pool is infected by sewage from the homes on Palm Street and Central Avenue and kids playing in it are exposed to all the diseases of plague-ridden European cities of several generations ago.

This dangerous condition at the rear of the property of Raymond Plain, 2765 Citronella was created when the Tremont Construction Co., developers of Pearce Acres, named after the subdivision's promoter, Lemon Grove real estate man Jim Pearce, graded the area. Unfortunately, the graders hit "sewer springs" and the liquid gravitated to the low spot, mixed with surface water and formed the pool.

County engineers estimate 8,000 gallons of effluent flows in an open ditch past the Plain residence daily and County health authorities are frankly worried.

"We rejected the developers original plan," stated Dr. J. B. Askew, County Director of Public Health. "It was poorly drained and had a high ground water level. The promoters petitioned the Planning Commission and the Board of Supervisors for relief below the standards we demanded," he stated.

Jim Pearce, who led the agitation for health department variance said that he had no interest in the property other than lending it the use of his name.

Clay Young, present titular head of Tremont Construction said that he'd do anything to alleviate the situation, including filling the low area. Up to now, after nearly a week, he has pumped out most of the water.

Stakes were being hammered home by the Department of Highways surveyors in the Mason Subdivision area this week and American Homes residents glumly viewed the activity which indicated the path of a 160 to 200 foot swath which would take out several homes in the latter section.

While the path of the multi-million dollar freeway has been almost positively pegged as hugging North Avenue between King Street and Buena Vista, roughly, the route in the Riviera Street area is not certain.

"Our men in the field now making preliminary appraisals," said Jack Putzer, Rights of Way agent for the Highway Department. "We want it thoroughly understood that only a rough appraisal of all property near the freeway route is being made. The Department will purchase only

It was announced this week by the Lemon Grove Home Rule Association that June 22-27 will be "Sign the Petition Week." Goal of the week long event will be to secure the remaining number of signatures to petitions calling for an election in Lemon Grove on the issue of incorporation. Nearly 1700 signatures of persons owning property in the Lemon Grove area are required before the Board of Supervisors will authorize an election to determine if the citizens wish to incorporate Lemon Grove. Of this amount, 500 signatures have already been obtained, a spokesman for the Home Rule group

Plane Crash Victim Gets Help From Generous Grovans

A light plane crashed in flames and exploded at Winslow, Arizona, last week and carried to death a Lemon Grove young mother, crippled her husband but miraculously spared the life of their infant daughter. "Dead is Mrs. Donald Smith, 24, 3596 Sweetwater Rd. in the Winslow General Hospital doctors reported that Smith's back was broken and the spinal cord may have been severed. An Editorial by Max Goodwin

The $750,000 La Mesa City budget indicates that an enormous amount of thoughtful study should go into the question of incorporation versus status quo for Lemon Grove.

The REVIEW reiterates its stand that the community should remain with the same type of government it now has—with a few qualifications. The La Mesa budget is a quarter of a million dollars greater than the previous budget in spite of the increase in assessed valuation from $11,266,040 (San Diego County tax rate guide, October 1952) to $21,826,250, against a population growth of 12,141 to 46,249. La Mesa tax rate is $1.50

The Lemon Grove tax rate would be $1.00, say proponents of incorporation. How this can be is not quite clear, regardless of charts, presumably proving it.

The County tax guide shows the Grove School District assessed valuation at $8,794,240 which is less than one-half of the La Mesa valuation. In addition La Mesa has a city sales tax (which must be considered local taxation), occupational tax and parking meters. In spite of this, La Mesa city tax rate on secured property is $1.50

The unincorporated county areas are in an extremely fortunate position, a condition which is probably unequaled anywhere else in the United States. Motorists from all over the continent stream into San Diego County to make tourists its biggest industry. While comparatively few of the tourists shop in Lemon Grove, part of every gas dollar spent upon entering the county is available to Lemon Grove for streets and roads.

If the same amount of effort being put into incorporation were to go into a community planning committee with representation from every organization, including P.T.A., churches, service clubs, women's groups and the like, more dollars could be obtained for Lemon Grove.

The premise of incorporation is good but incorporation is not the answer at this time. Incorporation would, in effect, build a fence around the Grove, sealing off the tourist tax bounty and some county services which would be costly to buy and maintain. The REVIEW calls for thinking residents to consider a planning organization to control the Grove destiny, rather than begging the community down in a tax devouring incorporated city.

We think the proponents of incorporation are really saying the community is starved for proper guidance; therefore let's incorporate. The REVIEW too, says the community is starved for guidance, but let's plan. It's cheaper!

Two gala days and nights of carnival fun and rodeo thrills, this Saturday and Sunday, will see one of the greatest events in Grove history and one that entertained more than a quarter million persons during the past twelve years.

Reverend J. W. McDonagh, pastor of St. John of the Cross church and host for the colorful two-day rodeo-fiesta, announced that every detail has been attended to by the many committees, who have been working diligently for months that this event will be long remembered.

Champion cowboys of the rodeo world will match skill and daring for the $5000 in prize money and points for championship honors. Wes Curtis, rodeo clown and Buff Brady trick roper and rider, both of national fame will highlight the western program.

Exhibition square dancers and top callers will predominate during the popular square dance round-up Saturday night with Dell Lake master of ceremonies. Also a feature attraction is the variety show of headline acts and music by the Heartland Hoe Dancers.

Queen of the rodeo and fiesta will be crowned Saturday, chosen from a number of lovely contestants, who have been vying for votes during the past weeks.

Throughout both days a delicious spit-barbecue dinner will be served. Colorful booths of games and special kiddie rides will lend a gay carnival spirit to the occasion.

The rodeo program for the two days will be of big time calibre and will feature a roster of champion cowboy performers from various parts of the nation. Those in the know are looking forward to the wildest and roughest show of its kind, according to Herb Lipp, rodeo manager. Clark Bateholder popular

Grove Fire Dep't. Visualizes Radio Communications

Lemon Grove Fire Department has qualified for state and federal civil defense funds as a result of a training program that it started several weeks ago, it was learned this week.

As a result, approximately $1,600 will be applied for from these sources according to Fire Chief Hensley.

The department set up a civil defense training class and 78 persons were recruited. The first class of ten graduated last week. Government participants in up to 50% of the cost of equipment used in this training.

An expanded program will follow, Hensley said, and funds returned would be used to obtain a radio-communication system. Hose and other basic pieces of equipment are being purchased with the funds resulting from the initial class.

Commissioner Channing Mason said that the Lemon Grove department is the only one in Southern California to qualify to date.

Fathers To Get Gifts — And Pay For Same

The world's most neglected day, Father's Day, will be the center of family attention Sunday, June 21, in a day set apart as Father's Day.

While a windfall of ties, cigars, shirts and underwear will be bestowed upon him, much of it will be bought by papa, and most of it, regardless of the donor, will be paid for by you-know-who.

Giants Marigolds Globs Of Gold

Marigolds are as common as weeds in Lemon Grove and about as easy to grow. There is an increasing affection for these flower kingdom despite their faults. Given any attention at all, a planting of giant marigolds puts the mark of distinction upon the most modest of home gardens. For this reason the California Bedding Plant Advisory Board heartily recommends them to home gardeners. The possibilities for Lemon Grove beautification with plantings of this grand showy annual are well worth investigating. Present day marigolds are a super race of super giants that are subject to many superlatives. The flowers are huge globs of orange and yellow borne on long stems of amazing strength that make them ideal for cut flowers. Transplants set out from flats will become large flowering plants in about 60 days. Individual plants fill in about 2 square feet of ground space and grow to an average of three feet high, so give them ample room.

Marigolds are sun lovers. They thrive on heavy irrigation and should never be sprinkled. Pests will not kill them but a regular spray schedule is needed to keep them clean and healthy. A mulching of peat moss or of steer manure is preferable to deep cultivating as the roots are easily loosened causing the plant to topple.

These dramatic giant marigolds are available in pure yellow.

Freeway Talk Brings Big Turnout

Ralph Luckenbach, Assistant District Engineer of the California Department of Highways, spoke Monday night at a meeting sponsored by the Greater Lemon Grove Civic Association. The proposed freeway for this area will be what is termed as a "full freeway," rather than merely a through way, as the contemplated growth of the area it will serve indicates that the reduced accident rate, the traffic capacity and the lower cost of upkeep of a freeway over that of continual widening and relocating of heavily travelled streets will solve the problem for a period of the next 20 years, he stated. The location of the freeway in some spots is not definite, as approval of the local agencies must be secured, streets to bear the local traffic load must be planned, and individuals who are involved should be considered, it was pointed out. Compensation for property condemned for such a project would be based on a fair marketing price; value of real estate adjacent to or near a freeway is enhanced for the most part, surveys indicate.

The meeting was attended by about 150 people, many of whom indicated their interest in the subject by asking questions on the route and width of the road.

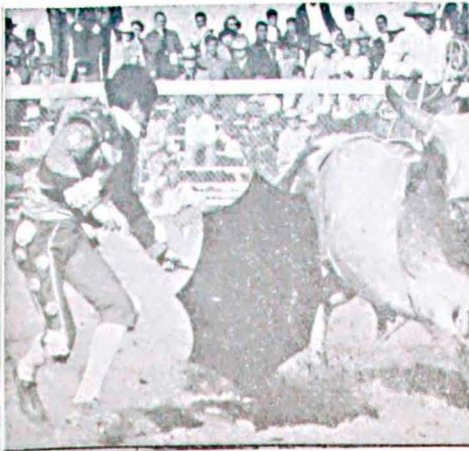

RELAXING BEFORE THE BIG SHOW—Dorothy Wanket, of Encinitas, queen of the San Diego County Fair, June 26-July 5, won't get much chance to relax after next week's opening of the big summer show at Del Mar, so she catches a few minutes' rest before the excitement begins. As "Fairiest of the Fair," Queen Dorothy will preside at a continuous schedule of events and free entertainment features during the Fair's 10 days and nights.

School Award Winners Named At Colorful Ceremonies

The award for outstanding scholarship in grades six through eight was presented to David Newell at the graduation ceremonies of the Lemon Grove Intermediate School Wednesday evening. Luther Hussey of the local Kiwanis Club made the presentation. The award, a twenty-five dollar Defense Bond, is given annually by the club to that student who holds the highest scholastic record for his class.

Winners of the citizenship cup award were LeRoy Kerl and Joanne Cartabruno. Their names will be engraved on the permanent citizenship trophy presented to the school by the 1946 class.

Approximately 800 attended the colorful ceremonies which were held on the Golden Avenue playground. Following the invocation by Rev. W. Leroy Elster, the girls' double trio, with Margaret Waymire, Claire Tatnen, Peggy Moore, Mary Ann Atkins, Barbara Adams, Barbara Hentigan, and Sharon Cassell, accompanist, sang, along with the graduation girls' choir.

The theme, "Schools Serve the Nation," was emphasized by four student speakers, Christine Hem, Connie Allen, Fred Sanders, and Patricia Anderson. The boys' double quartet, under the direction of Ada Krinsky, presented two vocal numbers. Members included Richard Singer, Dean Brower, Billy Cabral, James Glazebrook, Henry Cook, LeRoy Kerl, Gordon Hoard, Henry White, Martin Haase, and Alan Rovang, accompanist.

Ben I. Scheel, school principal, made the presentation of the class and Harry Griffen and Lawrence Herder made the presentation of diplomas. Mr. Griffen's son, Harry, was a member of the graduating class.

Girl vocal groups and the school orchestra were both under the direction of Paul Cheatham. 167 students from the eighth grade were graduated to Helix High School.

Anyone willing to find out what incorporation means was invited to hold a "parlor party" last week, the Lemon Grove Home Rule Association has declared. The Association stated that they would send speakers to any home during the next ten days to speak with groups of five or more persons. "The purpose of these meetings is to inform people exactly what incorporation means," said Bob Geitzen, Association president. "We know there are many people eager to find out how incorporation can affect them. All that we ask is that these persons contact a few neighbors, invite them over, and let us speak to them for one evening," Geitzen added.

that part needed for the route. No one, not even the surveyors, knows exactly where the route will be until the final survey is completed and all the appraisal data is filed," he pointed out.

Survey is Wide

W. F. Palmer, another Rights-of-Way agent said that the preliminary appraisal is made for two reasons. "It goes into a fund of information, along with information of the physical aspects of the route. Engineers will then decide the exact route based on least inconvenience for residents, the least cost for the taxpayer."

"That is the reason why so many homes are being measured and appraised," he pointed out. "Every home that could remotely be considered is being given the same treatment as those homes that are positive to be purchased."

"When the route is finally established," Putzer said, "re-appraisals will be made on the basis of property values at that time. This will probably get underway sometime this fall," he stated.

The Rights-of-Way men say that property values adjacent to the road will be increased. "Look at College Avenue with its service road system," they say. "The same principal will apply here."

Both men emphasized that owner's cost will not be a criterion as to the State appraisal except in cases of recent purchases. "We are simply buyers, who want to buy, meeting the prices of the seller, who wants to sell," they say. Negotiations for purchase will be on the basis of comparable Lemon Grove property at current prices in that immediate vicinity.

Escrow Time This Fall

When negotiations start this fall, the sales will go into escrow just as any other sale. In about 60 days the seller will receive his money. The Highway

Fred Scheneman's Sister Passes In NY

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Scheneman and son, John Spencer, 8023 Daryl St., have returned from a visit with both their parents in Indiana.

Fred, operator of Fred's Auto Shop at 8719 Broadway, had choice tickets for the 500 Mile Speedway Race but was called to New York several days previously by the illness of his sister, Mrs. Henry Grewo of New Hyde Park.

Mrs. Grewo, who visited in San Diego several years ago, passed away June 8th.

Patricia's Winners Named

Mrs. Paul F. Mann, 7418 Roosevelt Ave., and Bette Reynolds, 2066 Corona, were the lucky ticket holders of the door prize drawing at Patricia's, Lemon Grove's newest women's wear shop, last week.

The women will be given run of the complete store for a summer outfit complete from skin out.

The lucky numbers had been drawn and sealed in an envelope in the window of the Review for a week prior to the drawing.

Photos are being taken and will be used in the next issue of this newspaper.

Patricia's is located at 7887 Broadway in the Sprouse-Reitz building.

Department will rent the property either to the seller, if he desires, or to some other renter if the seller doesn't wish it at a rate based on other comparable rentals.

About 90% of the homes purchased will be moved, spokeswoman said. The houses will be sold at auction to the general public.

Time To Move

Main idea of working so far ahead of the final survey, representatives say, is to give people a chance to re-locate without the pressure of too little time.

"We know that many people will be inconvenienced," they admit, "but we are trying to make the inconvenience as palatable as possible under the circumstances," they said.

A general meeting, under the sponsorship of the REVIEW, will be held early in July, probably the week following the Fourth of July weekend. Mr. Putzer, Continued on page 8

House for Budget-Minded From Small Homes Guide

Economy Plan

In a small space for small pocketbooks, Architect Rudolph A. Matern has designed an inviting home. This plan proves that economy features can be attractive features.
A wall of closets separates the two bedrooms, hall space is kept to a minimum. Open planning of living and dining areas makes rooms appear large, saves partition money.
Basement provides storage space, hall linen closet is convenient to bedrooms and bath. Vestibule entrance leads into attractive living room with bay window and fireplace. Kitchen, though small, is well arranged. Note double-basin sink and pleasant back windows.

Total area of this small home is 885 sq. ft. Information on blueprints and their cost can be obtained by writing to Small Homes Guide, 32 W. Washington, Chicago 2, Ill.

YOU "PICK" THE HARVEST ANY TIME

WHEN YOU HAVE COMPLETE HOME REFRIGERATION

ENJOY SEASONABLE FOODS OUT OF SEASON — PREPARE BETTER MEALS, HEALTHIER MEALS, TASTIER MEALS — AND SAVE MONEY WITH COMPLETE HOME REFRIGERATION
— A MODERN REFRIGERATOR PLUS A MODERN HOME FREEZER.

It used to be there were just certain seasons that you could enjoy the certain fresh foods you liked. Otherwise, you ate them "canned."

Today that's all changed — and the magic that changed it is a method of food preservation called "quick freezing."

For, through quick freezing... meats, vegetables and fruits can be instantly preserved with all their goodness, flavor and health-giving elements captured "like-fresh."

BETTER, HEALTHIER MEALS FOR YOUR FAMILY
To you, this means simply that you can "stretch out" harvest time to all year long — that you can "pick" the choice of any harvest — any time you choose — for better, healthier meals all the time.

To do it, of course, you must go modern and put complete refrigeration in your home.

FOLLOW THESE TWO STEPS TO COMPLETE REFRIGERATION
Your first step to complete home refrigeration is a refrigerator with a freezer compartment. You need this because with it you can keep fresh foods perfectly — a handy supply for day-to-day eating.

Your second step to complete home refrigeration is a home freezer — the right size for your family. You need this because it will allow you to buy fresh meats, vegetables, fruits in season at quantity prices — preserve them in your freezer through quick freezing — for weeks or even months.

TODAY, LET YOUR DEALER HELP YOU

If your refrigerator is now 10 years old, it doesn't have a freezer compartment — and that means you need a new one to take advantage of all the wonderful frozen food specials.

If you have a new refrigerator — make your home refrigeration complete with a new home freezer.

Either or both are for sale at your dealer's — many makes, models and sizes — all on easy terms.

Together they bring you wonderful eating — better, healthier, tastier meals — at a saving.

Merk Named Helix Athlete of Year: Ernie Merk was named Helix High's "Athlete of the Year" by teachers in a poll taken recently by the Highland Fling. Merk, who was a sensational tailback on the Helix 'H', a hard-working guard on the Helix 'S' and a great infielder on the Helix 'B', was voted the honor by a huge majority. The biggest award Merk gathered for his collection was being crowned the "City Prep League Player of the Year" by the Breitbard Athletic Foundation. He also got honorable mention from the Foundation for basketball and a second string berth on the all-league baseball team. Merk, a 5-foot-9, 185-pound athlete succeeds Noel Mickelson, who took the title last year as a great in baseball and basketball. Other Highlanders competing for the title were: (after each name was what sports they did), Jerry Hurst, Football, Basketball, baseball; Stan Davies, Football, Basketball, Track; Art Myers, Football and Basketball; Wally Kolberg, Track; Bill Conlee, Baseball and Basketball; Carlos Packrell, Football and Track; Karl Jordan, Football and Track; Tom Kelly, Football and Baseball; Fred Tooze, Baseball; Bob Anaya, Track; Sonny Beyer, Football & Baseball, and Ray West, Basketball and Baseball.

Girl Athletes Have Party

The Girls' Athletic Association had a late afternoon Beach Party, Friday, May 22, on the bay side of the Silver Strand. The afternoon activities included swimming, volleyball and softball. After these activities, the girls built a fire over which the evening meal was prepared. Group singing around the campfire concluded the party.

The president of the GAA is Jane Kellock and the sponsor is Mrs. Marthalee Mehner, physical education teacher. More sports articles along with my Highland Lads and Lassies will continue throughout the summer for everyone who reads this articles benefit, and enjoyment, I hope.

Once termed "mud operas", outdoor stage productions such as those presented at many fairs, have been lifted to the same high level as hit Broadway musical comedies, through development of stage, scenic, sound and lighting effects.

Miss Scovel Collecting 'Goats for Egypt'

At least three local families have taken up a "Goats for Korea and Egypt" project it was revealed this week by Gertrude Scovel, 7633 Church Street.

"Nobody in Southern California wants to raise these buck kids," Miss Scovel pointed out. "The poverty stricken people of Korea and especially Egypt do, however. That is why several of us are gathering up these tiny bucks that would be slaughtered otherwise and feeding them to good husky animals."

"About 2,200 of them will go in the first shipment in November through a California-wide collection arrangement," she added.

Ernest Chambers, 7895 Bryan

Court and Dave Foss, 1211 Bittern, are the families engaged in this charity in addition to Miss Scovel.

Heifers are still being shipped to farmer refugees of Western Germany and baby chicks go to the Near East through a similar arrangement, she said.

Anyone interested in this project may get additional information from Miss Scovel at H6-8504.

OPERATION BOMBSTIGHT—We don't know just what the target is around Broadway and Imperial, but just two days after a truck dropped enough roofing material to give the street the appearance of a snowfall, a milk truck accidentally discharged several cases of fresh milk; not too many feet away from the same spot. After a number of Helping Henriets helped the frustrated driver salvage what was left of the milk cartons a sizeable pool of cow juice still remained. Only destiny kept this sight from being photographed so REVIEW readers could see it. And destiny was in the form of numerous cats and dogs who pread the word so fast to their animal friends that before A. JESSEN, staff photog could get to the scene, there wasn't any scene. The street was licked clean.

except for some wading pools. Mrs. Plain, mother of two boys, Dail, 6 years and Don 14, viewed the affair with well controlled alarm.

"There has been no polio in this neighborhood as far as I know," she said, "but everytime one of my boys appears even slightly ill I worry about that disease. There are about 25 youngsters in the neighborhood and we can't keep them out without policing the place from sun-up to sundown."

"I pulled a 14 month old baby out of the puddles last week," she reported. "He was crawling through the scummy water while his sister was playing in the water in the ditch."

A plan is being worked out by the Tremont people so that eventually, residents in the area may tap onto their sewers for a nominal fee and reduce the effluent problem.

Meanwhile, County public works departments are reviewing the situation in light of this week's reports by the health department.

While the pool has been reduced to puddles as a result of the pumping, 8,000 gallons of contaminated effluent continues to flow daily into the lives of the youngsters in the Citronella Street area and the low ground will again fill with bacteria-laden liquid.

This is a horrible picture of Lemon Grove in the age of sanitation enlightenment. June 1953.

Smith, if he recovers, will be hospitalized for about six months. The accident left the family without funds. Hall estimated that the young man would require about four to five hundred dollars for hospital and medical care and advanced that amount of money, that Smith could have proper care. Upon his return to Lemon Grove Rev. Chandler called upon members of his church to aid the family and the response was immediate.

Not only did the Trinity Presbyterian Church start a fund campaign but seven service organizations in the Grove also pitched in and over $100 has already been pledged to help absorb the cost of medical care for the young man. The Lions, the newly formed Lionesses, the Kiwanis, the Kiwanian League, the Firemen's Auxiliary join with the church group to pledge contributions to the fund.

Early contributors included Earl Weber, $10, Channing Mason, $25, Tormey and son, $10, and others.

Contributions are being accepted at Hall's Service Station by Marjorie Hall and at the Review.

A more complete list will be published in the next issue of the Review.
